CHESHIRE'S ANNUAL CARNIVAL FUNDRAISER

This year's Carnival was a success! Held on Sep 6th and 7th, the net profits this year were around $11,000. Thank you to everyone who helped out - Kiwanians, family, and CHS Key Club. It was REALLY busy, but it was worth it. Special thanks are in order for Wallingford Club member Tim Gallogly for his timely appearance and hard work on the fried dough station, along with Tom Williams - they made a great team, really cranking out the fried dough when it was insanely busy just before the fireworks; to new member Frank Bainer for his tireless efforts making the very popular deep-fried oreos and pickles and sometimes covering up to 4 stations at once; and to Key Clubber Jimmy Miele for his valuable help as middle man, calling the orders back and delivering the finished product, as well as keeping things stocked.

The Club also had a membership booth in the Marketplace side. Thank You to Tom Williams for handling that side, and signing up 18 people for the November Meet & Greet.
