A CELEBRATION OF BOB SEILER'S LIFE

Ken Anderson reported that he and Allen Meyerjack attended the Celebration of Bob Seiler's life on Mon, Jan 27. Hosted by the Newington Kiwanis Club, it was very well attended. Bob Seiler was the current President of Newington Kiwanis, and a former Lt. Governor for New England & Bermuda District; he passed away on Nov. 19, 2013. He was extremely active in Kiwanis and the community. From the invitation to the Celebration:

"Driven by a devotion to helping the needy, Bob Seiler volunteered his time generously to the Kiwanis Club's charitable fund-raiser the Big K Flea Market, the Newington Human Services Department's foodbank and untold other projects.

'Bob' was a past Newington Volunteer of the Year and the Treasurer, a past Grand Marshal of the Newington Memorial Day Parade, a member of Newington's Volunteer Fire Department, Chairman of the Board of Fire Commissioners, President of the Newington Veterans Firefighters Association, President of the Kiwanis Club. He retired as a Sergeant after 25 years in Newington's Police Department."

From Ken Anderson:

"He did a lot for the town - it seems like seven days a week. He helped. He made a difference in this world."

JANUARY BOARD MEETING HELD - CHESHIRE

The Board of Directors for Cheshire Kiwanis met on Wed, Jan 15th. A decision was made to clarify payment terms of scholarships in the letter awarding the scholarship to the recipient.
